

North Highland and Moray Space Cluster

390

Jobs created by 2030 in the Highlands and Islands around launch activities

740

Jobs created in the Highlands and Islands as a result of the Space Cluster

£22m

The power of launch activities will generate £22m GVA for the Highlands and Islands economy

£56m

The power of the wider space cluster unlocking £56m GVA for the Highlands and Islands economy

Space Cluster capability building opportunities across industry segments

Upstream opportunities including launch and range control, specialist logistics and payload integration.

Midstream opportunities including ground stations and data centres supporting space assets.

Downstream opportunities including processing earth observation data for climate monitoring.

Attracting University Space R&D through academic partnering and industry investment.

Focus on early STEM engagement to 'home grow' skilled technical workforce.

Up to 12
Launches

Space Hub Sutherland will be supporting up to 12 launches per year by the second half of the decade bringing with it cross-segment and support activity and tourism spend to the area.